

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Welcome to GA's Front-end Web Development education program!

We're thrilled to have you join us for this 10-week foray into the jungle of Front-end Web Development. In this packet you will find all the information you need to navigate through your course and beyond. If you happen to lose it, never fear! You can find all of this information online through your course website as well.

Course Schedule: March 15th, 2014 - May 17th, 2014

Saturdays, 10am-4.30pm

Location details:

9 Back Hill,

4th Floor

London, UK, EC1R 5EN

Contact information:

Your producer:

Emma Walker, emma@generalassemb.ly

Your instructors:

Dan Gillespie, dlagillespie@gmail.com

James Willock, james.willock@generalassemb.ly

Your TA:

CJ Ponti, cjponti@gmail.com

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

What does it mean to be a GA student?

Quality, Live Instruction: GA instructors have both professional and instructional experience. They are passionate and knowledgeable about their craft as well as sharing it with their students.

Practical, Dynamic Content: Constantly evolving curricula that are perpetually under review by both professional instructional designers and professional practitioners. This leads to relevant, practical, and dynamic materials that are taught using hands-on, project-based learning.

Personalized Learning Resources: Producers, instructors & TA's who are dedicated to a well-rounded student experience. As a GA student you have access to one-on-one help from TA's during lectures as well as on your own schedule, regular office hours, class materials and videos posted online help accommodate for varied levels of experience and learning styles. Your producer is available for feedback at any point so we can help you achieve your desired outcomes.

Access to the GA community: In addition to the advantage of community-based learning, the GA member/alumni community is rich in passion, talent, and experience. Successfully completing a GA education program can lead to introductions/interviews that will help lead to new opportunities in every way.

Focus on Outcomes: As a graduate of a GA course, you have access to a variety of resources aimed at helping you achieve the outcomes you desire. If you're building your own prototype, you will have access to course materials as well as TA assistance for up to 6 months after graduation. If you're interested in finding a new job, we provide you access to the GA Director of Student Outcomes, as well as introductions to GA hiring partners.

A few other great GA student perks:

- 3 free classes or 1 free workshop - When you find a class (go to <http://generalassemb.ly/education/?where=london> to see current 1 time class/workshop offerings, not applicable to other education programs) that you are interested in taking, contact your program producer to get a discount code and you can get in for free!
- Opportunity for TA position post graduation

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

A few last minute details to note:

Missing Class:

While we hope that you will attend every class, we know that sometimes things come up. If you absolutely must miss a class, please let us know. We do not recommend missing more than 2 classes over the course of the program. Reach out to your TA and instructor to figure out the best way for you to stay on top of the material, as it will take hard work to do so. We are committed to making this a great educational experience for you, and want to make sure a couple bumps along the way don't stop you from reaching your end goal.

Payment Information:

We accept payment via check, credit card, debit card, or Paypal. Please adhere to your scheduled payment plan as to not endanger your participation in the course.

Refund Policy:

If you need to withdraw from your General Assembly course for any reason prior to the its start, we will provide you with a full refund or credit good for future use towards any other course, class or workshop. If you are less than four weeks into your course and you are unhappy with it for any reason, you can still receive a full refund or credit. Refunds beyond that point are pro-rated based on the date of withdrawal.